LEO SAYS KEEP 'EM

Not Himself, But Through His Representative

NOT IN SO MANY WORDS

But It Amounts to Exactly the Same Thing.

London, Oct. 2.—Cardinal Vaughan, the head of the Catholic Church in England, the close friend and adviser of the Pope, and undoubtedly the greatest diplomat in the church, has been carefully studying the religious situation in the Philippines.

Cardinal Vaughan ranks next to the Pope in temporal power. He is the accredited representative of the Church to the Court of St. James and is called the "Dean of the Diplomatic Corps."

From an interview had by the Journal with His Eminence and with others in authority at Westminster Palace it can be definitely stated that the Church and the Pope are glad the United States is now in control of the Philippines and of Cuba, even though it means the decrease of temporal power.

The Pope wants peace, prosperity and civilization among the his troubled islands, all of which mean greater glory and success to the Christian religion.

Cardinal Vaughan received the Journal representative today in the throne room of Westminster Palace. He was attended by Father Johnson, his ecclesiastical secretary.

"Are you glad the United States have won the Philippines?" the Cardinal was asked.

He replied only with a smile, but Father Johnson answered for him, hastily, exclaiming:

"Certainly, we believe in the United States policy."

In reference to the settlement of the war, the Cardinal said:

"We all want peace. To whom these islands may morally belong—why do you ask me? I wish peace maintained. Every one wishes it, not I alone."

"But whom do you wish to have possession of the islands? Spaniards, Germans or Americans?" asked the Journal correspondent.

The answer was the following statement, that can be read between the lines:

"The war is over. Every one is glad your commission is in Paris, arranging terms of peace. May it be a successful commission. May it bring peace. Certainly, we all hope it. It is much to hope."

With the cognizance of the Cardinal, one of his subordinates prepared for the Journal the following official statement, showing the position of the Catholic Church toward American sovereignty in the Philippines and the rest of India. While diplomacy and his lofty position prevented the Cardinal from expressing the sentiment himself, they are direct from the throne.

"Socialistic religion is eminently that of the Prodigal Son, who pauses and says, 'I will go home to my father,' only when he finds himself at the day of starvation."

"Such, in brief, was the position of the Catholic Church toward the Philippines, and the rest of India. While diplomacy and his lofty position prevented the Cardinal from expressing the sentiment himself, they are direct from the throne."

pointed and resolutions and memorials on deceased members were presented and referred to appropriate committees. Rev. Dr. Mann of Missouri offered a resolution naming Kansas City, Mo., as the next place of meeting of the convention.

From Indiana came a resolution expressing the earnest desire of the convention that instructions to the commissioners to be appointed to the international peace conference proposed by the czar of Russia shall recommend the establishment of a permanent court for the settlement of all differences by arbitration.

Several resolutions on the question of marriage divorces were presented and it was moved that the discussion of these questions by the convention be held behind closed doors, but some objection was made to immediate consideration and the matter was referred to the calendar of business for consideration by a committee.

The communication received yesterday from Felix Agoncillo, the representative of Aguinaldo, now in this city, was read by Dr. McConnell of Louisiana. The document expressed the esteem of the Philippines for the United States.

The convention then proceeded to the consideration of the report on the revision of the constitution, which had been made a special order for 11 o'clock.

The amendments acted upon were those adopted by both houses of the general convention of 1896 and which require ratification by the next subsequent convention to become operative. The first of these affected the question of a heading or title for the constitution, canons, etc., of the church and provides it should be as follows:

"Constitution and canon for the government of that portion of the Catholic Church known in law as the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America."

The amendment made by the last convention incorporated in the constitution that portion of the Catholic Church known in law as the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America.

FIGHT GROWS WARMER

Of the Pana Strikers Against Imported Negroes.

MINE MANAGER LUKENS

Has a Narrow Escape With Life at Virden.

Pana, Ill., Oct. 5.—The militia here continue to patrol the streets, holding up and searching all classes of citizens and relieving them of any firearms. The union miners in conference with state labor leaders of various organizations have adopted plans for a more vigorous war against the blacks and the mine operators.

Every effort will be put forth to keep the coal mined by the blacks out of the market. Every car that leaves Pana is now mysteriously labeled with chalk "Negro scab coal from Pana, Ill."

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 6.—Mine Operator Fred Lukens has had a narrow escape for life at Virden. He left the stockade and went to town, where the miners saw him on the street and gave chase. The Chicago ex-politicians guarding the stockade took Lukens' car for help and opened the gates in the confusion and escape the miners. The ex-politicians covered the miners with thirty Winchester rifles and they retreated. Postmaster Kimball has said to the operators who are in the stockade but is afraid to deliver it, as no one is allowed to approach the stockade.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 6.—A special to the Dispatch from Carlinville, Ill., says: "The night at Virden passed quietly. The town presented a martial aspect. Fully 2,500 armed miners, organized into squads, patrolled the railroad tracks and highways."

The men, when relieved from duty, slept in barns, empty store rooms, box cars and on the sidewalks, wherever room could be found. Mayor Noll issued orders closing all saloons while the present trouble lasts. Commissary arrangements for feeding the miners have been perfected.

The strikers are not meeting the company's plan. Manager Lukens, fearing an attempt to destroy the stockade would be made, called on Sheriff Davenport for deputies. The leading merchants offered to go on the bonds of a number of Virden miners who own their homes if they were sworn in as deputies by the sheriff. The company's property would not be molested as long as the negroes were not in sight. The offer was refused by Lukens. A brother of Sheriff Davenport spent the night in the stockade, which is in charge of 22 ex-Chicago politicians. Manager Lukens affirmed his purpose of bringing in the company's groves, and insisted that the sheriff be in readiness to invoke state aid. The sheriff says he will do this, and will only call on Governor Tanner as a last resort.

The operators of the Chicago and Alton divisions are not meeting the strikers' demands that they are victims of the strike. The operators in the other districts, who they aver, are aiding the strikers in keeping the plants idle. They claim that there is a combine to keep the product of their mines out of the market.
